Author Maureen Byrnes Hardegree

Maureen Byrnes Hardegree is a first cousin and first rate writer. She has won several awards, including the Maggie and the Suzannah and she was a 2003 Golden Heart finalist. Maureen has at least four published stories and writes for various blogs and websites.

From Maureen's website: 'Maureen appeared at two Gwinnett County Georgia schools this past spring. She and her critique partners spoke about writing with Five Forks Middle School Mosaic Award winners and their parents. She also attended Corley Elementary's Career Day and answered lots of questions about being a writer—many of those questions were about how much money she made writing and which famous writers were her friends. The children were disappointed that she didn't personally know J.K. Rowling.'

One of the best things about Maureen is that she was a grandchild of Edward R. Byrnes and Pauline Elizabeth Schrot Byrnes, and although young, did spend time as a child in Byrnesville. She was also in Byrnesville in the summer of 2005 with her husband Wesley and daughter Cynthia. Read some of her work and learn more about Maureen at her website.
